Creative Fundraising Solutions, LLC serves organizations throughout the Mid-West and the Mid-South carrying a tradition of helping organizations fulfill their mission.

In a time when many not-for-profit organizations require exceptional assistance to survive and flourish, Creative Fundraising Solutions, LLC has had extraordinary successes in fundraising, with years of experience and outstanding service records to assist this most important sector of our communities, organizations, and businesses.

CFS provides the expertise and informed strategies needed for organizations to make gainful investments in their philanthropy programs.

The Company has forged a highly regarded reputation for achieving client objectives through the creative application of fund raising and development best practices that fit the particular circumstances of your organization.

Just as philanthropy programs should be donor-centered, so are the client-centered consulting services of Creative Fundraising Solutions, LLC.

Our longstanding relationships with our client organizations are a testament to the value of our consulting approach. We train staff but we continue the process of development on consulting basis.
